The nature and purpose of RSCD training Scholarships

One of the better ways to achieve the purpose* of RSCD is to equip and train Free Church youth workers to more effectively reach and disciple students. In order to assist with that training we are committed to providing tuition assistance for several strategic opportunities. We desire that this training will assist youth workers as they develop disciple-making youth ministries in their churches.

How to Apply for a Scholarship

Submit this completed application to the RSCD Chairman before the date of the training event.

Answer the following Eligibility Questions for RSCD Training Scholarships

YES/NO Are you currently working (either volunteer or paid) directly with students in an Evangelical Free Church in the Central District?

YES/NO Has your church actively participated in Impact or Winter Blast retreats in the previous 12 months (or commits to participate in the coming year)?

Note: Special accommodations may be made for applicants who significantly assist with RSCD's mission.

Note: A volunteer youth worker is eligible only if there is no paid youth worker in his or her church.

The Scope of RSCD Training Scholarships

Scholarships are to be applied to the registration cost of approved trainings (not to include food, lodging or travel). Approved trainings include events sponsored by Sonlife, Cadre, EFCA, Purpose Driven Youth Ministry training, or other equivalent evangelical youth ministry training.

Funding for the RSCD Training Scholarships

- Renewal: RSCD can reimburse your church $525/couple for RENEWAL Alumni, and $725/couple for a first timer.
- Applications must be received by the date of the training event. Allow 4 weeks for processing.,
- The maximum amount of total scholarship allowance for a qualified applicant in a given calendar year is $100 for eligible training other than RENEWAL, OR, $525 for RENEWAL(Alumni) or $725 for a first-timer at Renewal.
